

Eva Jakobson Vaagland

Managing Director Norwegian Safety Forum, Norway

Eva Jakobson Vaagland is a member of the ESCON- board (ESCON is the European Safe Community Network) where all designated Safe Communities in Europe are members.

She is a Head of the Norwegian Safety Forum (NSF) – an organization designed to provide information on all aspects of injuries and safety, and to promote co-operation between business, public sector and non-governmental organizations. It is a well-established meeting place, with 80 membership organizations, stakeholders with a wide range of experience in the field of injury prevention and safety promotion. The forum, established in 1985, is supported by The Ministry of Health and the Finance Norway (where all the major insurance companies are stakeholders).

NSF is responsible for co-ordination and development of the Safe Community scheme in Norway – and we have along with our community network and stakeholders – developed a national program based on the Safe Community concept and Norwegian rules and regulations that functions alongside the international Safe Community program in Norway.

NSF is also designated as an “International Safe Community support center”.
